

GRAHAM L. CAVE - F.C.I.S., M.C.I.M.-

We are delighted that Graham Cave is our new deputy president for the forthcoming year.

Graham Cave, a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries & Administrators and member of the Chartered Institute of Marketing, was born and brought up in London and educated at Alleyns School, Dulwich. He became a Freeman of the City of London in 1972 and a Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Pattenmakers in 1998, joining the Court in 2006.

His major business activities are divided between his marketing consultancy, Harwood Marketing, and his role as Development Director of The Chartered Institute of Loss Adjusters based in the City of London, having been Executive Director of the Institute between 1998 and 2009.

In 2001 he was appointed Marketing/Communication Director of FUEDI, the European Federation of Loss Adjusting Experts, and since that time has promoted the organisation at the highest level in Brussels. He holds various Board appointments, amongst which are The Chartered Insurance Institute's Faculty of Claims and The Insurance Charities. On recently being appointed Deputy President of The Insurance Charities he said that he was thrilled to have been chosen and was looking forward to promoting the charity in all sectors of the Insurance market.

Away from his busy business life Graham's world revolves around his family; his lovely wife Ellie, his three children Julian, Victoria and Sarah and his four (at the moment) grandchildren. He has many leisure interests, predominantly on two wheels or four – cycling in beautiful Sussex or at motor racing events either on the grid or as a spectator.
